THE PATENT BREAST COLLAR FOR DOUBLE HARNESS.

71 Third Street, Bet. Main & Market.

TAKES precedence over the collar and mane headstalls, and makes much lighter and more comfortable, and costs for a size of horses, for which I have secured the patent, $10.00. It is the best and easiest pieces of retarding and exchanging the mane and tail, and the largest and most convenient of saddle collars ever invented. It is offered at the lowest prices.

The final resolution of the Third-party platform is this:

The moral, legal and constitutional right and power to use "men and money" to put down and suppress rebellion and civil war; that it is the duty of the Government to do it, and that it is essential for the future peace and prosperity of our country for every man to do his duty, and that the Union and Constitution deserve the gratitude of the nation, and should be honored for it.

The number of pupils admitted and educated at this school is now 1,000, and the average annual expense of supporting and maintaining them is about $15,000.

The studies embrace reading, orthography, writing, English grammar, arithmetic, algebra, geometry, composition, analysis, Latin and French, vocal and instrumental music, and the various facilities usually taught in the best academies.

Some people may be at a loss to know what this resolution means; but we are not, nor we venture to say, is our neighbor the Democrat, whom, indeed, it mainly concerns. And we think nobody will be at any loss when we remind every body that, at the time the war was at its height, our neighbor seceded from the Union party of Kentucky because it was in favor of men and money to put down

rebellion, and supported a hostile

party on the platform of no more men

and no more money, expressing his own approval of the platform in this emphatic

language:

We say not another dollar nor another man can get with our constituted Kentucky excepting his past declaration to this effect.

Now, the reader has only to put this declaration and that resolution together and bear in mind that the sole capital of the Third-party is opposition to the extinct rebellion, in which relation it is to the party of Kentucky because it was in favor of men and money to put down

rebellion, and supported a hostile

party on the platform of no more men

and no more money, expressing his own

approval of the platform in this emphatic

language:

The officers of the institution, taken from the Report of 1866, are H. M. Patterson,

Director; Miss Elizabeth Dyer, Teacher;

Miss Henrietta Harlowe, Teacher; Miss Eliza Davis (blind), Teacher; Miss Luanna Heeves (blind), Teacher; Miss Anna Hedges, Teacher of Penmanship, and they are all

The Anti-Tammany Democrats Indignant.

New York, April 12.

The committee appointed by the delegations to the Tammany Hall Democratic organization of this city, who were refused admission to the Convention at Albany on Wednesday last, met last evening to consider the action to be taken to secure the admission of the anti-Tammany faction to the coming convention.

It was decided to repeat the demand that was made at the meeting of the anti-Tammany delegation.

Additional steps may be made to the club, at club rates.
